- 83 per cent of the houses were constructed on plots owned by the beneficiaries. However, only 47 per cent of the houses were constructed by beneficiaries themselves.
- About 50 per cent of the beneficiaries have received assistance in the form of cash and the rest in the form of material.
- 86 per cent of the beneficiaries have expressed their satisfaction with constructed houses and the occupancy rate of IAY houses is very high.
- Most of the IAY houses have used local material for construction, thus resulting in useful linkages with local skills and resources.
- In general, the beneficiaries do not feel the assistance is adequate.
- The ownership titles of the houses are predominantly in the name of male family members.
